

Employee of the Semester

Zach Smathers was recently honored at the Carolina Union End of Term Feast as the 2014 Employee of the Semester. Throughout this semester, Zach has succeeded beyond staff expectations in his new role as Operations Scheduling Manager. He has worked diligently to streamline and improve the scheduling process in the department, and has proven very reliable in his role when sudden scheduling needs have arisen. Zach is also an extremely reliable and dedicated Operations Supervisor and takes a vested interest in the involvement and development of the department, particularly through CUEF. We thank Zach for all he has done this semester; please join us in congratulating him.
