

Carolina United 2022

?Diversity is not simply race, religion, sexuality, gender, creed; it is a plurality of experiences, perspectives, and ideas. Leadership is not simply a title, position, list of accomplishments; it is the ability and willingness to inspire yourself and others.?

What is Carolina United?

Carolina United provides an opportunity for students to engage in intergroup dialogue while developing the skills to actively engage in social justice work. Through the course of a three-day overnight retreat, Carolina United provides participants with the opportunity to engage in self-reflection, dialogue, and action planning to make a difference in the world around them. Carolina United serves as a catalyst for UNC students to understand identity, equity, and social justice within themselves and their community. As a result of attending Carolina United, participants will identify and enact their role in becoming a changemaker and making a positive impact on the lives of others.

The Carolina United retreat will take place in the spring semester 2023 and applications will go live in the fall semester for attendees and facilitators.
