Treat Yo Self Thursday is back this week, just as you desperately need it! Take a break from the end-of-semester madness and join us for a cupcake on November 20 at 4pm.

All students are invited to enjoy cupcakes and conversation with Carolina Union staff from 4pm to 5pm in the West Lounge. We want to hear your ideas and comments about the Union—everything from the furniture to the programming and more. Even if you don't have anything to share, you're welcome to take a cupcake!
