An Afternoon with Diane Guerrero

Activist and actress on Orange is the New Black and Jane the Virgin, Diane Guerrero, will be giving a lecture at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill on Sunday, March 6, 2016. Learn more about Diane's story here.

The lecture will take place in the Great Hall, housed within the FPG Student Union, at 2:00pm. Door open at 1:30pm and will close at 2:10pm. Tickets will need to be presented upon entrance. Following the keynote lecture, there will be a short Q&A session using questions submitted via Twitter during the lecture.

Tickets can be purchased for $5. They will be on sale from Tuesday, February 16th until Friday, March 4th at noon. Tickets are available for UNC students and a limited amount of tickets are available for the public. Purchase tickets here.

This keynote lecture is brought to you by the Carolina Union Activities Board (CUAB), Carolina Latina/o Collaborative (CLC), and Student United for Immigration Equality (SUJE).
