Student Staff Spotlight: Andrea Bustillos
Andrea Bustillos is a sophomore History, and Peace War and Defense double major. This is her first semester as an Office Assistant for the Carolina Union's Administrative Suite. Her job consists of creating and updating documents, emails, and spreadsheets for the department. A native of North Carolina, Andrea's hometown is Raleigh. One of her favorite things about the city is how much history it holds, but also how it's growing into an urban center. Get to know a little more about her!

CUAB Vice President and Committee Chair Applications

The Carolina Union Activities Board (CUAB) is accepting applications for the 2017-2018 Vice President and Committee Chair positions until March 30. CUAB welcomes applications from any student with programming experience looking to further develop their leadership and professional skills. [Apply today!]

The LAB: The Visual Side of Branding

The Lab continues on March 27 with The Visual Side of Branding workshop!

Why is visual consistency a critical component of an organization's brand? Join us as we examine case studies from UNC and the greater community to discuss the importance of developing and using consistent graphics to tell an organization's brand story. We'll also practice some creative thinking exercises to help jump start your organization's visual identity (don't fret if you do not have an organization: these activities are still incredibly useful for creative brainstorming). In partnership with CUBE...

Jordan Bermudez Selected As CUAB President

The Carolina Union Activities Board (CUAB) is excited to announce that Jordan Bermudez, a sophomore sports administration major, has been elected to serve as the 2017-2018 CUAB President and Vice-Chair of the Union Board of Directors.

Bermudez has been involved with CUAB since joining the UNC community -- she applied for the concerts committee after she met CUAB at orientation, and currently serves as the committee's co-chair. She strives to respond to the desires of the student body while honoring the inclusive mission of CUAB.
Neil Harwani Selected As Board of Directors Chair

Neil Harwani has been selected as the 2017-2018 Chair of the Carolina Union Board of Directors. He is a junior from Greensboro, North Carolina, majoring in Business Administration.

The Board of Directors Chair is the representative of the Board and the student face of the Union. Harwani is no stranger to the Carolina Union. He served his sophomore year as CUAB’s Union Programming chair; this year he serves as both CUAB President and Vice-Chair of the Board of Directors. In addition to his positions within the Carolina Union, Harwani has been involved with large-scale events, such...

The LAB: Build Your Brand Worksheets

The LAB: Build Your Brand workshop was hosted last fall with the goal of helping students craft their personal brand story. We're now making the worksheets available to all students.

These worksheets will help you develop a personal narrative, identify beliefs and values, and define your brand personality.

Storytelling is a powerful tool when marketing yourself to potential employers, so we hope this will be a valuable resource for internship or post-graduate employment pursuits.

See the below attachment for the worksheets.

Remembering Archie Copeland

The Carolina Union is regretful to inform that Archie Copeland, a former Union director (1987-1992), has passed away. Copeland began working with the Union in 1961 as a graduate assistant. He was quickly promoted to assistant director in 1963, and later to associate director in 1969, where he served until becoming Union director in 1987. Copeland?s tenure was marked by his commitment to the arts and inclusive programming. He was responsible for opening The Cabaret, a venue for free evening entertainment that featured local bands, poetry readings, and dance workshops, located on the first...
The Lab: Recipe for Résumé Success

How do you make your résumé stand out amongst a crowd?

Join The Lab for our Recipe for Résumé Success workshop on February 22 as we discuss the key ingredients that make an effective résumé and how spicing it up with good design and creativity will help you catch the attention of prospective employers.

We'll take a look at examples of well designed (and not so well designed) résumés, and information will be kept at a relatively basic design level. Anyone, regardless of previous design knowledge, should leave with an understanding of how to push their résumé to the...
