Chancellor's Awards

Each Spring, the UNC campus community comes together to honor outstanding students for academic achievement and campus leadership through their involvement in residential and Greek life, student self-governance, and many other areas. The Chancellor's Awards Ceremony, held in our own Great Hall, is the only campus-wide student recognition program at Carolina.

The nomination period begins early in the Spring semester. For a nomination form, please click here.

Source URL: https://carolinaunion.unc.edu/news-events/union-events/chancellors-awards