Fraternity & Sorority Life

The Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life and Community Involvement at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill oversees the 61 fraternity and sorority organizations at Carolina. The staff provides advising, support, training, resources, programs and services, maintains communications with faculty and alumni advisors and parents, works closely with national organizations and governing bodies, organizes leadership retreats and workshops, supports the academic performance of fraternity and sorority members, and recognizes positive achievements of individuals and organizations.
