Fraternity & Sorority Life

Update: Spring 2021 FSL Operations

Important health and safety measures are impacting operations for fraternities and sororities this semester. Please visit our COVID-19 page [1] for the latest information.

FSL Office Operations

- M-F: 8:30am-5pm.
- Office doors closed; Email our office [2] specifying which staff member you would like to meet with.
- Organization mailboxes: You may choose to utilize mailboxes at the Union’s Guest Services office, or have mail delivered to your chapter house or the house of a current member.

About FSL

The Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill oversees the 51 fraternity and sorority organizations at Carolina. The staff provides advising, support, training, resources, programs and services, maintains communications with faculty and alumni advisors and parents, works closely with national organizations and governing bodies, organizes leadership retreats and workshops, supports the academic performance of fraternity and sorority members, and recognizes positive achievements of individuals and organizations.
