

Published on Carolina Union (<https://carolinaunion.unc.edu>)

Jump Into Fall Involvement Fairs

Ready to get more involved in campus life? Looking for great student organizations to join? Student Life & Leadership is hosting two involvement fairs that will feature more than 60 student organizations, there will be many opportunities to take the leap and join groups that match your interests and passions.

"We want to give First Years and all students an opportunity to jump into campus life and all that UNC has to offer," said Lee Roberts, Student Organizations Program Coordinator, for the Carolina Union's Office of Student Life & Leadership. "So bring a friend, meet someone new, and explore new hobbies and passions."

Here's everything you need to know about the two fairs:

First Year Faves Involvement Fair

Who: Geared to First Year students (but open to all!) and 40+ student organizations

When: Tuesday, September 24th, 5-8pm

Where: Rams Head Plaza

What: Opportunities to join student organizations, plus a DJ and other performances

Fall Involvement Fair

Who: All students and 60+ student organizations

When: Wednesday, September 25th, 11am-2pm

Where: The Pit

What: Opportunities to join student organizations, plus Trolley Stop hot dogs, giveaways, and performances

Source URL: <https://carolinaunion.unc.edu/news-and-events/news/jump-fall-involvement-fairs>