Workshop 6: Discovering You!

Knowing yourself, your personality traits, and strengths can help you be a better leader. This workshop provides you with the opportunity to discover more about yourself as a person so that you can be the best leader you can be. We hope that you find the "16 Personalities" and "High Five" assessments, in addition to the reflection questions, beneficial to your personal leadership development! Don't forget to take the survey at the end of the workbook to track your participation.
