Leadership Development Programs

ACC Leadership Symposium

With delegations from each of the 15 Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) colleges and universities in attendance, the annual ACC Student Leadership Symposium is designed to develop a community of ACC undergraduate students who understand the relationship between global and local issues and work collaboratively to create innovative initiatives that advance students' capacity of global leadership. Students from each participating university will be grouped with peers from their fellow ACC schools for the duration of the conference. Student leaders from current ACC colleges and universities will have the opportunity to engage in educational sessions, hear keynote addresses, explore topical content, and participate in experiential application through their group project collaboration and presentations. This symposium always takes place in late February of the spring application.

The 2022 ACC Leadership Symposium will be April 1-3, 2022, at Syracuse University.
What is Carolina United?

Carolina United is a program run through the Office of Student Life and Leadership that provides a safe and accepting environment for UNC students to explore diversity and multiculturalism within and between themselves. This environment is intended to foster collaborative dialogue that unites participants across their differences. Carolina United hopes to serve as a catalyst for greater recognition and celebration of this unity on UNC's campus and in humanity.

Carolina United is a 3-day overnight retreat that will take place at Camp Weaver in Greensboro, NC from February 25th-27th. During this time, participants will engage in collaborative dialogue that establishes unity across difference, builds a deeper understanding of identity and intersectionality, and provides space for participants to take part in making a more inclusive Carolina. If you are passionate about making a difference and learning more about social justice and inclusion, this is an opportunity for you!

What are we looking for in an applicant?

Carolina United is looking for passionate students who want to challenge themselves as individuals in an environment of perpetual growth and dynamic interpersonal exploration. Throughout this application process, we hope to get to know your authentic self. Therefore, please know that your application will be read without your name on the application and that all answers will be kept confidential.

NC Fellows

Founded in 1967, the mission of the North Carolina Fellows Program is to reimagine traditional understandings of leadership by engaging in meaningful dialogue, creating a supportive community, increasing self-awareness amongst its members, and encouraging positive change.

Applications for the Class of 2025 cohort are now closed.

(W)omxn of Worth Spring Conference
The (W)omxn of Worth Spring Conference will take place on Friday March 25th, 2022, from 2p-8p in the Carolina Union Auditorium. (W)omxn of Worth creates and sustains a community for female identifying students of color who identify as members of underrepresented racial and ethnic populations that will promote academic preparedness, holistic student wellness and success, identity development, and sisterhood at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The 2022 conference will feature keynote speaker Tiffany Waddell Tate and panel discussions around Making Room for More, Building a Life and Career On Your Own Terms.

RSVP at go.unc.edu/W [2].

Bell Leadership Symposium

The 5th Annual Bell Student Leadership Symposium took place on Friday February 4th, 2022 from 2p-8p in the Frank Graham Porter Student Union at UNC Chapel Hill. This year’s symposium featured keynote speaker Zach Mercurio and discussions around the Power of Purposeful Leadership. We invite members of the UNC community (faculty, staff, undergraduate and graduate students) to attend the symposium and/or prepare a 45-minute presentation/workshop to share with attendees.

SPARK

UNC Spark is a four-year cohort program whose mission is to assist self-identified undergraduate women of color in their transitions into and through Carolina, and to enhance the overall success of women of color on campus by creating a supportive community and providing opportunities for leadership and self-discovery. Each October, the newly selected first-year cohort of Spark women attend an offsite retreat led by the program advisor and the Spark student leadership, after which participants are expected to remain engaged with the program until graduation.

The 2021 Spark Retreat took place on October 9-10, 2021, at the YMCA Camp Weaver in Greensboro, NC.
